

Kids and Maternity Monday Crystal Couture February 16, 2009

On Monday, Feb 16, the kids took over Crystal Couture! Showing the latest fashions for moms, moms to be, and kids, it was clear that the kids ruled the roost. In Star Search fashion, Kids showed their stuff on the runway, coloring pages, and in the Moonbounce.

Jeremy Rucker of Golds Gym showed that it is hip to be in shape as he led exercise classes for kids on the stage. There was also a puppet show by Classika Theatre, and even Elmo from Sesame Street showed up for plenty of photo ops!

There were delicious treats from Red Velvet Cupcake and smarties, because the smart kids knew that Crystal City was the place to be.
