

Soft, Pink Valentines
Crystal Couture
Saturday, February 14, 2009 - DAYTIME

At Crystal Couture, Valentine's Day started with the softer side of romance. Pink, fuchsia, and lilac, colors of the day, were reflected on the walls, in the cupcakes, and in the many of the guests' accessories.

Love was in the air, and little hearts were on the cheeks, courtesy of Blair Michaels. Massage Envy was also on hand, for those who wanted a little love for their bodies. But it was those who love fashion that were really in heaven, as the latest trends were on the runway and on the floor.

Crystal Couture was the perfect way to start Valentine's Day with love.
