

Tat-Tuesday Crystal Couture February 17, 2009

Crystal Couture knows that fashion is more than just the clothes that you wear. At Tat-Tuesday, body art was the theme, and the body was the canvas. The event highlighted tattoos, henna, body painting and more.

Kim Reyes and Roger Riggie set the mood with fantastic body paintings. Models were painted in the form of a flame, a lion, a peacock, Superman, Marie Antoinette, and even Crystal City Man! Visitors to the event could join in the fun by getting henna tattoos, artistic hand-drawn temp tats by Maria Mandle of Creative Couch Designs, or just one of the many temporary tattoos that filled the tables.

There was also great entertainment from Belladonna – the sexy sword-wielding belly dancer – and Synthetic Theater, who took center stage with an amazing excerpt from their show on Dante's Divine Comedy. The audiences were left speechless.

To make sure everyone could follow all the fun around the room, Crystal Couture had Aly, superfashionista, from MIX107.3 to host the whole event. The word for the night was SEXY!
